

KIWANIS CLUB OF HACIENDA HEIGHTS

12/3 – First day of Rose Float decorating – contact David Wallach for more details

12/3 – Adopt a Highway – meet at parking lot at Colima Rd and Hacienda Blvd 9 am – 11 am

12/10 – HH Kiwanis Holiday Social at 17700 Castleton St., #268, City of Industry, 6 pm – 9 pm

12/17 – Frost Fest at Hacienda Heights Community Center, 9 am – 12 pm

HOMESTEAD MUSEUM

12/4 – Victorian Feasts: Holiday Foods from Dickens’ England to Frontier California. Culinary historian, Richard Foss, will enlighten and entertain with stories of the Victorian diet, how it changed during Dickens’ lifetime and how it was adapted here in California. Time: 12, 2 and 4 pm. $8 adults, $6 seniors/students; light refreshments included.

12/3 & 17 from 12:30 to 4 pm. “Maker Day” Make crafts inspired by the museum’s collection. Admission is free.

12/10 & 11, from 12 to 4 pm. A weekend of Holiday Merriment. How did Christmas in Los Angeles change from the days of the Mexican ranchos through the 1920s? See for yourself as you tour their own decorated historic houses. Enjoy crafts, music, visiting with Santa Claus, and more! Picnics are welcome. Admission is free.

12/18, from 12:30 to 4 pm – Silent Films and Cider – watch holiday-themed silent films while sipping hot cider. Admission is free.

HSI LAI TEMPLE

Now until 12/18 – Emi Motokawa Buddhist Oil Painting Exhibition, 10 am – 5 pm, Tuesday – Sunday.

11/26 – A home where we’ve grown together. Discussion of the history of Hsi Lai Temple.

12/4/16 – One day meditation retreat, in English

To learn more about what the Temple is offering , please go to their website, which is <http://www.hsilai.org/>